

Telepresence Interoperability Protocol ("TIP") Implementation License

Published July 2010

This is a legal agreement ("Agreement") between the International Multimedia Telecommunications Consortium, Inc. ("IMTC") and the individual or entity that accesses, downloads, uses, or reviews the Telepresence Interoperability Protocol Specification ("You"). IMTC and You will be referred to collectively in this Agreement as "the Parties". Cisco Systems Inc. ("Cisco") is an intended third-party beneficiary of this Agreement.

If You want a license from IMTC to implement the TIP Specification, You must agree to these terms. This is an offer to be accepted only on the terms set forth in this Agreement. You accept these terms by accessing, downloading, using, or reviewing the TIP Specification. Once accepted, IMTC grants You the license and sub-license below, provided that You fully comply with these terms. If You do not agree to any of these terms, then You are not licensed under this Agreement. If You attempt to alter or modify any of these terms, then the offer is no longer valid and is revoked.

TIP is a protocol for interoperability between videoconferencing products, including streaming of audio, video, and data to and from videoconferencing products. IMTC offers this license to encourage interoperability between competitive videoconferencing products that exist as of the date of this license or that may come to exist in the future.

Neither the TIP Specification nor any portion of the TIP Specification may be printed out, reproduced, distributed, resold, or transmitted for any purpose other than the use of TIP to create Compliant Implementations (as defined below), including, without limitation, commercial purposes, such as selling copies of this documentation or providing paid-for support services.

Definitions

An "Affiliate" of any entity shall mean any entity that owns or controls (directly or indirectly), is owned or controlled by (directly or indirectly), or is under direct or indirect common ownership or control with, such entity. For purposes of this definition of "Affiliate," the phrase "owns or controls" shall mean direct or indirect control of more than 50 percent of the voting power to elect directors of a corporation in the case of a corporate entity, or for any other entity, the power to direct the management of such entity.

An "Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim" means any assertion, threat to assert, or participation in the assertion of a lawsuit, proceeding, claim, or similar action, by You or one of your Affiliates, or by a Transferee (as defined below) to which you have directly or indirectly transferred an Essential Patent Claim, against any person or entity, including Cisco, the IMTC, or any Affiliate of either of them, claiming that the making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, importation, or other disposition of a Compliant Implementation infringes an Essential Patent Claim You or Your Affiliate owns, now or in the future. For the avoidance of doubt, the term "Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim" does not include the assertion, threat to assert, or participation in the assertion of: (a) any claim of any patent that is not an Essential Patent Claim; or (b) any Essential Patent Claim that is essential to the creation of a Compliant Implementation, to the extent that such Essential Patent Claim is infringed by any making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, importation, or other disposition other than the making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, importation, or other disposition of a Compliant Implementation.

“Compliant Implementation” means only the portions of Your product or Your Affiliate’s product that are fully compliant with the TIP Specification.

“Essential Patent Claim” means a claim of a patent, whether or not issued as of the date of this Agreement, that is necessarily infringed by implementing the required portions of the TIP Specification. A claim is necessarily infringed only when there is no technically or commercially reasonable way to avoid infringement of that claim when following the requirements of the TIP Specification to make a Compliant Implementation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the term Essential Claim does not include any claim: (a) that, if licensed, would require the payment of royalties by the licensor to a person or entity that is not affiliated with the licensor; or (b) that is essential only to the implementation of a standard that is referenced in the TIP Specification.

“TIP Specification” means the TIP specification found at <http://www.imtc.org> /[[insert]]. Only the TIP Specification published by IMTC (and versions previously published by Cisco or its Affiliates at www.cisco.com/go/tip) will be considered the TIP Specification for purposes of this Agreement. Any specification not published by IMTC or Cisco, or one that incorporates the TIP Specification in part, in whole, or by reference shall not be considered the TIP Specification for purposes of this Agreement.

A “Transferee” means any direct or indirect transferee, assignee, or purchaser of an Essential Patent Claim (or a patent containing an Essential Patent Claim, or the right to assert an Essential Patent Claim or a patent containing an Essential Patent Claim) You or Your Affiliate owns, now or in the future.

Copyright License

Upon Your acceptance of these terms, IMTC grants You and each of Your Affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable, non-sub-licensable, personal, and worldwide license to use and reproduce the attached TIP Specification, solely in connection with Your creation of Compliant Implementations. The right to reproduce is limited to the creation of such limited number of copies of the Specification as are reasonably required for your creation of Compliant Implementations. No rights are granted to distribute, display, perform, modify, or create derivative works of the Specification, provided that You may propose modifications to the Specification solely in connection with Your participation in the IMTC Telepresence Interoperability Protocol Activity Group.

Patent Sub-license

Upon Your acceptance of these terms, IMTC grants You and each of Your Affiliates a non-exclusive, royalty-free, non-transferable, non-sub-licensable, personal, worldwide sub-license under all Essential Patent Claims owned, by Cisco or its Affiliates, now or in the future, solely to make, have made, use, sell, offer to sell, import, and distribute Compliant Implementations. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in the previous sentence grants You a license or sub-license under: (a) any claim of any patent licensable by Cisco that is not an Essential Patent Claim; or (b) any Essential Patent Claim that is infringed by any making, having made, using selling, offering for sale, importation, or other disposition other than the making, having made, using, selling, offering for sale, importation, or other disposition of a Compliant Implementation.

Prohibited Uses

The licenses and sub-licenses granted to You and Your Affiliates by IMTC in the TIP Specification, including those granted in the Patent Sub-license, are conditioned upon Your agreement to use the TIP Specification only for the purpose of interoperating between videoconferencing products, and for no other purpose. No right or license to any intellectual property owned by IMTC or Cisco is granted under this agreement for any other use.

Defensive Suspension

Effective upon the Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim by You or Your Affiliate against Cisco or its Affiliate, the IMTC or its Affiliate, or any other licensee or sub-licensee (or Affiliate of such licensee or sub-licensee) of an Essential Patent Claim under a license or sub-license provided to such licensee or sub-licensee of Essential Patent Claims, all sub-licenses granted to You or Your Affiliate under this Agreement to any Essential Patent Claims shall terminate immediately, and retroactively.

Surrender of IMTC License Prior to Assertion.

In the event that You or Your Affiliate shall determine that it wishes to engage in an Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim, You or Your Affiliate will first provide written notice to the IMTC stating that You and Your Affiliate are surrendering the sub-license to Essential Patent Claims granted by this Agreement. You acknowledge that the IMTC will promptly forward the notice You or Your Affiliate provides to all IMTC members as of the date on which the notice is received. Neither You nor Your Affiliate may engage in any Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim until one year following the date of its notice to the IMTC.

Effect of Surrender.

For the avoidance of doubt, the license to Essential Patent Claims You and Your Affiliates are granted under this Agreement shall continue in force during the one-year period following the date of the notice You or Your Affiliate provides. However, if You or Your Affiliate makes an Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim after the end of the one-year waiting period, any licenses or sub-licenses to Essential Patent Claims that You or Your Affiliate enjoyed under this Agreement are retroactively terminated, with the same effect as if such licenses had never existed. Further, You and Your Affiliate acknowledge and agree that when You Assert Essential Patent Claims, You may only seek reasonable and non-discriminatory (RAND) damages and/or RAND license fees, but may not seek an injunction or order of exclusion. Likewise, the entity against which You or Your Affiliate Asserts Essential Patent Claims may Assert any Essential Patent Claims it owns against You or Your Affiliate, but may only seek RAND damages and/or RAND license fees.

Application of Defensive Suspension and Surrender Provisions to Transferees.

Unless You (or Your Affiliate) and each direct and indirect transferor of an Essential Patent Claim formerly owned by You or Your Affiliate would be able to engage in the Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim consistent with the Defensive Suspension and Surrender provisions in the three previous paragraphs of this Agreement, no Transferee of an Essential Patent Claim formerly owned by You or Your Affiliate will have the right to engage in such an Assertion. If the transfer of an Essential Patent Claim occurs before the end of the one-year notice period referenced in the paragraph titled "Effect of Surrender", no Transferee of an Essential Patent Claim formerly owned by You or Your Affiliate shall engage in the Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim. In other words, any such Transferee receives the patent as if it is perpetually licensed to IMTC and IMTC's past, present, and future sub-licensees of Essential Patent Claims. If the transfer occurs after the end of the one-year waiting period there are no such limitations on the Transferee or the transferred patent, except that the limitation to seek only RAND license fees, including the prohibition on seeking injunctive relief or an order of exclusion, shall run with each transferred Essential Patent Claim to bind any Transferee of such Essential Patent Claim. You and each of Your Affiliates agree to use all reasonable efforts to provide written notice to any Transferee of an Essential Patent Claim formerly owned by You or Your Affiliate of the limitation on the ability of such Transferee to seek any remedy other than RAND license fees when such Transferee engages in the Assertion of an Essential Patent Claim.

Reservation of Rights

Copyright to the attached TIP Specification is the property of IMTC. All rights not expressly granted herein are reserved.

Updates

IMTC reserves the right to issue updates to any of the TIP Documents. Updates will be provided on IMTC's website, at <http://www.imtc.org>[insert].

Feedback and Improvements

IMTC welcomes feedback to and suggested improvements to, the TIP Documents. Feedback and suggested improvements may be sent by e-mail to [@imtc.org].

Please note that by providing such feedback or suggested improvements to IMTC, You acknowledge and agree that IMTC, any IMTC Affiliate, any IMTC member entity (and any Affiliate of any of them) and any other implementer of TIP may use such feedback and/or suggested improvements in connection with the TIP Specification without obligation of any kind to You, including by incorporating Your feedback or suggested improvements into future versions of the TIP Specification. Your submission of feedback constitutes Your agreement that IMTC may incorporate any feedback You provide into the TIP Specification (including any updates), and that You are licensing IMTC and its Affiliates, Cisco and its Affiliates, and all other implementers of the TIP Documents on the same terms on which IMTC is making the TIP Specification available to You and other actual and prospective implementers.

Third-Party Information

The TIP Specification may contain links to third-party websites and standards and specifications (for example, H.264 and the IETF RTP specification) that are not under the control of IMTC, or of Cisco, or of any Affiliate of either of them. Neither IMTC nor Cisco nor any Affiliate of either of them is responsible for the content on any linked site or referenced standard or specification. If You access a third-party website mentioned in the TIP Specification, then You do so at Your own risk. IMTC and Cisco provide these links and references only as a convenience, and the inclusion of the link or reference does not imply that IMTC, Cisco, or any Affiliate of either endorses or accepts any responsibility for the content on those third-party sites or of the referenced standards and specifications. Nothing in this Agreement grants any right, license or interest in or to any third party technology referenced in the TIP Specification. You acknowledge that the owners of intellectual property rights asserted to be necessary to implement any referenced standard may or may not make those intellectual property rights available to implementers.

No Warranty

THE TIP SPECIFICATION AND ALL LICENSES AND SUB-LICENSES GRANTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT ARE PROVIDED "AS IS". NEITHER IMTC NOR CISCO, NOR ANY AFFILIATE OF EITHER OF THEM, MAKES ANY REPRESENTATION, WARRANTY, CONDITION OR OTHER TERM, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED (BY COMMON LAW, STATUTE OR OTHERWISE), AND EACH DISCLAIMS ANY AND ALL REPRESENTATIONS, WARRANTIES, CONDITIONS OR OTHER TERMS WHICH MAY BE IMPLIED (BY COMMON LAW, STATUTE OR OTHERWISE) WITH RESPECT TO THE TIP SPECIFICATION AND/OR THE LICENSE TO THE TIP SPECIFICATION AND SUB-LICENSE TO THE ESSENTIAL CLAIMS GRANTED UNDER THIS AGREEMENT, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, ALL OF WHICH ARE EXCLUDED,

NONE OF THE IMTC, CISCO, OR ANY AFFILIATE OF EITHER OF THEM, SHALL HAVE ANY DUTY TO INDEMNIFY, HOLD HARMLESS OR DEFEND YOU, ANY OF YOUR AFFILIATES, OR ANY LICENSEE OR OTHER THIRD PARTY FROM AND AGAINST ANY LOSS, DAMAGE, LAWSUITS, PROCEEDINGS, CLAIMS OR SIMILAR ACTIONS THAT ARISE OR RESULT FROM ANY USE OR IMPLEMENTATION OF THE TIP SPECIFICATION, IN WHOLE OR IN PART, INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY USE, MANUFACTURE, OFFER TO SELL, SALE, IMPORTATION, OR DISTRIBUTION OF ANY COMPLIANT IMPLEMENTATION.

Limitation Of Liability

NEITHER IMTC, NOR CISCO, NOR ANY AFFILIATE OF EITHER OF THEM, SHALL BE LIABLE UNDER OR IN CONNECTION WITH THIS AGREEMENT (WHETHER FOR BREACH OF WARRANTY, IN CONTRACT, TORT, NEGLIGENCE, STRICT LIABILITY, OR OTHERWISE):

- (3) TO THE EXTENT SUCH LIABILITY CANNOT BE EXCLUDED OR LIMITED BY APPLICABLE LAW.

YOU ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IMTC WOULD NOT HAVE ENTERED INTO THIS AGREEMENT ON THE TERMS HEREOF WITHOUT THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SET FORTH HEREIN, AND THAT CISCO WOULD NOT HAVE PERMITTED IMTC TO GRANT THE SUB-LICENSES IN THIS AGREEMENT WITHOUT THE LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY SET FORTH HEREIN.
